Inscriptions of time on the pages of life

Dr. Dewakar Goel

This multidimensional eloquent is penned by Prof. Dr Dewakar Goel, a name that seeks no introduction. Being a poet, writer, philosopher, management expert, bureaucrat, visionary, an aviation expert, above all, a man of honour with a heart of gold, his brilliant attempt has touched every aspect of life!

Life is too short to sit on the shore, it exists to Explore! The author has given a rare glimpse of almost all that we endured in the past, to the crisis of Corona. It doesn't have a confined audience; from law makers to law breakers, professionals, homemakers, from elderly to teenagers and many. From workplace to world as a place, this edition covers it all! How is success evaluated? Between good and bad, where do the shades disappear? Can we ever really rise above addictions? How important are ethics in a world of wrongdoings? How far can one let money win morals? What outsmarts, working hard or working smart? What manages the management? Find the pointers here for the top level authorities covering boss management techniques, hiring attitude, workplace communication. Change being inevitable, this book teaches to manage the change, the easier way.

Get absorbed with the author while he sees our world with his eyes; take closer escapes to heaven on earth, Indian islands! He takes us on a nostalgic ride while we find answers. What is religion without humanity? Why has the third gender lost its identity on proving how perfect, the imperfect can be? The author being an aviation expert of international repute, this book also holds an in depth analysis of the aviation world. When sky is your limit, how far can you go? Where do airports stand when cyber security is in question? How intelligent is Artificial Intelligence? More than just a few lines to be read, this will be a companion for many. Unfold the many surprises & matchless distinctive ideas guiding time & again. It answers the unasked and voices the unspoken. Indulge in "Reflections", an experience to stay, in an exceptional way!
